I am an allogeneic stem cell transplant patient (Tx)

of University Hospitals Leuven, Belgium – Pediatric hematology-oncology/primary immunodeficiencies

Attention!
- I have a central line.
- I am immune-compromised and need to be isolated.
- Please do not take my temperature rectally or give me rectal medications.

My name is: ................................................

Valid from Tx ........................................... until ...........................................

Dr. Sandra Jacobs  Dr. Marleen Renard
Dr. Veerle Labarque  Dr. Heidi Segers
Dr. Isabelle Meyts  Dr. Anne Uyttebroeck

Contact pediatric unit hematology-oncology/primary immunodeficiencies

UZ Leuven campus Gasthuisberg
E 344 Pediatric hematology-oncology: tel. +32 16 34 34 10
E 305 Pediatric outpatient care unit: tel. +32 16 34 31 41
Permanence Pediatrics: tel. +32 16 34 06 59 / +32 16 34 06 62
Warning signs

If the following signs or symptoms occur, you must call the pediatric hematology-oncology/primary immunodeficiencies unit:

Infection:
- Temperature higher than 38 °C (or 100.4 °F)
- Chills

Persistent complaints:
- Vomiting during more than 24 hours
- Diarrhea during more than 24 hours and/or more than 4 times a day
- Constipation during more than three days
- Shortness of breath

Bleeding:
- A nosebleed or wounds that does not stop after 30 minutes
- Blood in urine or stool
- Coughing up blood or vomiting blood
- Bruises that are not caused by an injury or fall